BREAKING NEW GROUND

The National Council for Research on Women presents

An Immodest Proposal: Advancing a New Era of Social Justice

Tuesday, March 3, 2009
3:00 – 5:15 pm

Moderated by WNYC's
Adaora Udoji, host of The Takeaway

Hosted by American Express
200 Vesey Street, New York City

Welcome:

- Linda Basch, President, National Council for Research on Women
- Kerrie Peraino, VP, Human Resources, Chief Diversity Officer, American Express

Featured Speakers Include:

- Nancy Cantor, Chancellor and President, Syracuse University
- Dina Dublon, Former EVP and CFO, JPMorgan Chase
- Marcia D. Greenberger, Founder and Co-President, National Women's Law Center
- Patricia Williams, The "Mad Law Professor", Columbia University, [Invited]

At this critical yet promising moment in history, join a panel of experts for an in-depth and lively analysis of the most pressing issues of our time. What are the challenges and opportunities for advancing real and substantive social change in a time of economic crisis? Panelists will share their vision, strategies, and the action steps needed to promote more equitable and inclusive policies locally, nationally and globally.

Cosponsored by:

Catalyst; Center for American Women and Politics, Rutgers University; Demos: A Network for Ideas and Action; The White House Project; The Women of Color Policy Network at New York University; Women's Forum, Inc.

PLEASE RSVP via e-mail to ncrw@ncrw.org, or call 212-785-7335, ext. 100.

This program will precede the Council's Making a Difference for Women Awards Dinner at Cipriani Wall Street on March 3, 2009. For more information, please contact the Benefit Office at 212-763-8591, ncrw@cmevents.net, or visit our website at <http://www.ncrw.org/events/events.htm>.
