The NCRW Big Five Campaign

The National Council for Research on Women is raising awareness about the status of women in the United States by focusing on the Big Five issues of importance to women and girls, namely: economic security, health, immigration, violence, and education. Although these issues are critical to the lives and well-being of women and girls, they are particularly acute for those living in poverty, immigrants and women of color.

For more information, please contact the National Council for Research on Women: ncrw@ncrw.org or visit our website: www.ncrw.org.
